Minor Casualties.

Fire occurred recently in the basement of the large tenement 7 Hester street, New York occupied by twenty families. The fire was quickly discovered, and the firemen extinguished. It was found that an attempt had been made to burn the building. The cause of the fire was a gas stove, and the firemen were investigating the matter.

A most shocking accident occurred at Louisville, at the mine belonging to the American Mining and Smelting company, where superintendent, William Glasgow, was killed. The accident occurred when the mine shaft was down to the bottom of the shaft, 200 feet, to see about the depth of the shaft. The accident occurred when the shaft, striking the unsuspecting men, fell down, crushing their skulls to a jelly. Death must have been instantaneous.

Later disclosures in the matter of the surveying company, who claimed to be running a preliminary survey of the route of the St. Paul & Kansas City railway, develop an apparent swindling scheme, rivaling in audacity the swindling of the St. Paul & Kansas City railway. The scheme was a swindling scheme. Representing a surveying company, the swindlers obtained an air line from the Twin Cities to Kansas City, they were received all along the line with enthusiasm. The swindlers represented as applyable to build the road, and was solicited in every town visited. As the swindlers were not to be paid until the road was built, they were not to be paid until the road was built.

The police of Chicago arrested Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, who had been arrested in London, who was returned to her parents after nearly a year's absence. Warrants have also been issued for the arrest of the father and mother. When questioned by the police, Mr. Gordon said he was a farmer, and was abducted by a woman named Maggie Gordon. Mrs. Gordon declared that Maggie Gordon was a woman who had been arrested in London, and that she was unable to care for her. Mr. Gordon further alleged that while he was in London, he did not know this was his child. Had she done so, she would have returned it to him at once.

The billy reared up on his hind legs and batted the largest boy so heavily in his stomach that he was knocked clear off the bridge into the water. He would have drowned if the other boys had not pulled him out while billy walked to the side of the bridge and looked complacently down at his discomfited tormenters, and then walked proudly away.

"Let him sink; he is only a Jew," was the exclamation of a crowd of people in a Russian town recently, as they beheld the struggles of a poor wretch in the river. Just then a young man broke through the crowd which tried to hold him back, and, plunging into the river, brought the drowning man to the shore. As the crowd began to jeer at him for saving the life of a mere Jew, it was discovered that the man whose life was saved was a gentile, and that his brave rescuer was a Jew. The jeering at once ceased, and the crowd slunk away.

In the Pine Grove Mines, Esmeralda County, Nevada, there is a blind boy employed to do errands, tend cars and the like. He has a most remarkable faculty of finding his way, not only through the intricacies of the mine, but about the town. He goes to any part of the mine for tools and never goes astray, and on dark nights he guides the other miners from the town to the house where most of them lodge. They can't easily find the way without him, for the trail is narrow and crooked and on each side are many prospect holes and old cellars.

The Carr's Trouble.

By Associated Press Dispatches.

A London paper says there are still twenty-three islands in the Pacific Ocean which no nation has set up a claim to.

Persons who go through the streets of Alexandria, Va., singing or whistling after 10 o'clock at night can be arrested for disorderly conduct.

It is a popular saying that rich men's sons don't amount to much. Of 600 rich men in New York who have sons there are not twenty who are not hard at work building themselves up.

The Duluth & Winnepi officials say that they cannot build the road unless they succeed in getting the land grant. If this is the case the road will never be built.

As the aldermen who hold over object to being legislated out of office, they don't approve of the changes made in the proposed new charter at the mass meeting Friday night.

If the spectacle a certain individual made of himself at a public meeting recently is an indication of what he would have done had he been successful in his political aspirations last fall, the people of this community certainly are to be congratulated that they rejected him.

A BILL has been introduced into the legislature which is intended to compel the railroads to reduce the fare between St. Paul and Minneapolis to 14 cents a mile. An amendment will be offered to reduce fares to two cents a mile on all roads in the state. While laws of this kind are in force in most of the eastern states, we hardly think it would be fair to the companies to pass such a law in this state until the state is more thickly populated. The companies would be compelled to work at a loss, which is not just.

It is hard for Bro. Halsted, of the Tribune, to forget that the republicans of this community did not want him to represent them in the legislature, and it makes him mad and he wants to abuse somebody every time he thinks about it. But then, it seems to us it would be more becoming to abuse the republicans of the county who rejected him, than the individual whom they preferred. Be just, Bro. Halsted, if you are hot in the collar.

A Visit to the State's Prison.

The writer had the pleasure of visiting the State's prison at Stillwater with the members of the legislature on Wednesday, who accompanied the committee on state's prison on their tour of inspection. To a person who had never been in states prison the visit was one of more than ordinary interest and the visitors seemed to enjoy the trip, probably more than they would were the gates to be closed on them for life or even a year. Once inside, the main building was thrown open and the party, numbering 141 in all, were given free access to all parts and they soon scattered in all directions, many to look up unfortunate acquaintances from their section of the country, while others sauntered leisurely through the corridors chatting with the inmates behind the bars and dropping words of comfort here and there to some wretch whose lawless acts had placed him where communication with the outer world was entirely shut off. There are very few prisoners who do not think that they should be at liberty, although there are some who are frank enough to admit that they were lucky to get off with a life sentence for their crimes. The Younger boys seemed to attract more attention than the balance of the 400 prisoners, although J. Hal Reid and Lou Murray were objects of curiosity. James Funk and "Reddy", both life men and well known in this city, were the only convicts the writer knew and they seemed glad to see some one from Brainerd. There are but four women confined within the walls, three of them for life. The prison presented a very clean and tidy appearance, and much credit is due to Warden Stordock, and he appears to be very popular with the convicts. Dinner was served to the entire party within the walls, and they left at 3:10 for St. Paul, all expressing themselves pleased with the condition of the institution and their reception.

Gets the Earth at the Grand.

It is an exceedingly sultry day when the flies roost upon the gorgeous figure of John Dillon and it being cool last evening these insects had no resting opportunity whatsoever. The advertisement of "Wanted—the Earth" with John Dillon as the center of attraction put the largest audience of the season into the opera house, the place where dress and gallantry being filled clock full. "Wanted—the Earth" is a brilliant little farce written expressly for Mr. Dillon. It is a success because it gives Dillon a chance to turn himself loose and from first to last wit and humor sparkle like a glass of champagne and flash like a mirror in the sunlight. Dillon associates were good, but they were merely assistants, so disposed as to bring out the best qualities of the great comedian. At the close of this season Dillon will enjoy the reputation of having been greeted with a continued gallery during his whole trip, a reflection that must fill the heart of any actor who takes a pride in his profession, with joy. Dillon got last night what he wanted—the Earth, with a fence of silver dollars around it.—St. Louis Falls Argus Leader Jan. 3.

The above mentioned popular comedian will appear at Sleeper opera house on Tuesday evening, Feb. 19th. The uniform ball of the K. of C. will be given the same evening at the rink. In order to afford those who intend going to the dance an opportunity to attend the show also, it has been decided to open the doors of the opera house at 7 o'clock and ring up the curtain at 7:30. By this arrangement the show will be concluded by 10 or 10:15. Mr. Dillon is very popular in this city and will no doubt be greeted by a large audience.

Any man who has struck his finger nail with a hammer "knows how it is himself," and if he tries it he will know that the best thing for it is Dr. Wagner's Golden Relief. It is also the best thing for diarrhoea, pain in stomach, burns, flesh cuts, neuralgia and rheumatism. It quickly cures all pains, swelling, and stomach and bowel difficulties.—Worth its weight in gold. Try it.

Gets the Earth at the Grand.

It is an exceedingly silly day when the flies roost upon the gorgeous figure of John Dillon and it becomes almost too late in the evening to cool last evening these insects had a roosting opportunity whatsoever. The flies are not the only pests of the Earth" with John Dillon as the center of attraction put the largest audience of the season into the opera house, the pit, boxes, dress circle and gallery were filled with people. John Dillon's brilliant little farce "The Earth" written expressly for Mr. Dillon. It was a success because it gives Dillon a chance to turn himself loose and from first to last wit and humor are unobscured. John Dillon's brilliant flash like a mirror in the sunlight. Dillon's associates were good, but they were merely assistants, so disposed as to bring out the best qualities of the great comedian, and at the close of this season Dillon will enjoy the reputation of having been greeted with a continued ovation during his whole trip, a reputation which will be of great value to him who takes a pride in his profession and with John Dillon got last night what he wanted—the Earth, with a fence of silver dollars all over it.—St. Louis Free Press, March 3.

The above mentioned popular comedian will appear at Shubert opera house on Tuesday evening, Feb. 19th, at 8 o'clock. The K. of P. will be given the same evening at the same place. In order to afford those who intend to attend the opportunity to attend the show also, it has been decided to open the doors of the opera house at Telocok and ring up the curtain at 7:30. By this arrangement the audience will be included by 10 or 10:15. Mr. Dillon is very popular in this city and will not doubt be greeted by a large audience.

Any man who has struck his finger with a hammer "knows how it feels himself," and if he tries it he will find that the best thing for it is Dr. Ringer's Golden Relief. It is also the best thing for diarrhoea, pain in the stomach, cholera, colds, influenza and rheumatism. Quickly cures all pains, swelling, and stomach and bowels difficulties.—Worth its weight in gold.

Gets the Earth at the Grand.

It is an exceedingly silly day when the flies roost upon the gorgeous figure of John Dillon and it becomes almost too late in the evening to cool last evening these insects had a roosting opportunity whatsoever. "Ay bane on deese kouty van yare!" feint mout and sex vake," Ole Olsen. Some of the finest home made lard in the country at S. Walker & Son's.

See "Ole Olsen," one year over, at the opera house Friday evening, Feb. 22nd. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents.

The city band are having their rooms in the Sleeper block enlarged and fitted up in metropolitan style.

"Ole Olsen" is coming. Sew your buttons on with wire. At opera house Friday evening, Feb. 22nd. Prices of admission, 25, 50 and 75 cents.

A car load of beef and pork of the finest quality, guaranteed first class, just received at S. Walker & Son's. Forward quarters of beef 4 cts, hind quarters 6 cts, and pork 8 1/2 cts.

Mr. A. C. Van Campen, Shelbyville, Tenn., has accepted the position of general secretary of the Brainerd Y. M. C. A., and will arrive in the city on Saturday.

"Its a boy and weighs 8 1/2 pounds," said Frank Osborn proudly, in speaking of the arrival of the little stranger at his home on Saturday morning last. Frank's remarks were accompanied by a fragrant Havana.

T. A. Hildreth, of St. Paul, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will conduct the men's meeting next Sunday afternoon at half past three o'clock, at the new Y. M. C. A. building. All young men are invited to come.

See "Ole Olsen" just over. "Ole Olsen" was arrested in Fargo, Dak., last week for throwing an immense audience into fits of hysterical laughter. At Sleeper opera house, Friday evening, Feb. 22nd. Admission 25, 50 and 75 cents.

On Monday evening, previous to his departure for the west, Mr. P. Mertz tendered a banquet to his brother members of the city band, and to return the compliment they presented Mr. Mertz with a fine pocket book containing a nice little sum of money, as a mark of their esteem.

Mr. Sam Walker desires the Dispatch to extend his warmest thanks to the firemen and others who rendered such timely aid in saving his building from the flames on Saturday last. Their promptness in responding to the alarm, and their effective efforts in extinguishing the flames and saving his property from destruction, will ever be remembered and appreciated by him.

The fire department was called out on Saturday by a fire in the small room occupied by McCallum's tailor shop, adjoining Walker's meat market. The department got out in a remarkably small space of time and easily mastered the flames that had gained quite considerable headway. The building is owned by Mr. Sam Walker, and is insured. Mr. Walker says the loss is about a $100.

There was quite a little row at Cora Carey's place on Laurel street last night, and in the fracas a brakeman, whose name we could not learn, was shot, though not dangerously. It seems that the fellow went to the resort and attempted to run the house, and when he pulled down the chandelier Cora thought it was time he was quieted, and she whipped out a gun and fired, but the ball struck a rib and glanced off. There have been no arrests.

J. W. Riggs, of St. Paul, a son of A. P. Riggs of this city, and who was at one time associated with H. C. Stivers in the newspaper business in this city, has invented and patented an electrical device to prevent railroad collisions which promises to make a millionaire of him. The daily press of the two cities has devoted a great deal of space in praising and explaining this wonderful contrivance, and say with the introduction of this system the deadly collision will be a thing of the past. A company composed of many of the most prominent and wealthy railroad officials of St. Paul has been formed for the manufacture of this device, and it is as meritorious as claimed, we have no doubt but that it will prove a veritable gold mine to the inventor.

Brainerd has now one of the finest tenor parlors in the Northwest, not excluding the Twin cities. Since their removal to the basement of the Bank block, Smith & Cochran have undertaken to fit their place up with all the modern conveniences, and their efforts are appreciated by the public, which is shown by their increased trade. The bath rooms in connection with the establishment are something that a long suffering public has yearned for. They are fitted up in metropolitan style and are kept clean and neat. In the shop new French plate mirrors have been added and also new chairs. A three-bowl fountain has been placed in the centre of the room and everything that can add to the comfort of their patrons has been provided. The firm enjoys the finest trade in the city and are justly entitled to it.

Just for Example. EDITORS DISPATCH.—Please find below a clipping by which you can see that other cities are awakening to the fact that booming don't pay. Don't you suppose there is a moral in this that could be applied to us?

The Detroit Tribune, after casting about for an awful example to hold up to the extravagant boomers of that city, prints the following: St. Paul and Minneapolis have of late years been blessed with the same sort of reckless management which is just now getting ahead in Detroit. Public improvements have been the cry. The issue of bonds was easy and printing didn't cost much. Millions of debt have been rolled up, and now the frightened citizens are finally awake to the danger and yelling vigorously for a halt. The moral of which is obvious.

Asst. Gen. Supt. Root Dead.

N. D. Root, assistant general superintendent of the Northern Pacific road, with headquarters at Helena, Mont., was seriously injured at Tacoma on Tuesday of this week while inspecting the operations of a new steam shovel, which was being introduced on the road. At the time of the accident it was not thought that Mr. Root's injuries were necessarily fatal, and he seemed to be recovering nicely yesterday forenoon, when a change for the worse suddenly occurred and he died before noon. Mr. Root came to Brainerd in 1881, and resided here continuously for over seven years. He began work here as a dispatcher, but has been rapidly promoted from one position to another, until he reached the honorable and responsible place occupied at his death. He was one of the best railroad men in the Northwest, and his death will be a great loss to the corporation he has so faithfully served. His loss will be keenly felt by the citizens and railroad employees of this city, by whom he was held in the highest esteem. The following is an account by a press correspondent of the way he received his injuries:

TACOMA, Wash., Special Telegram, Feb. 12.—Assistant General Superintendent N. D. Root, of the Northern Pacific railroad, was seriously injured by a peculiar accident to-day in the railroad yard in this city. He, with several other officials, were witnessing the working of the steam shovel and patent plow used to unload dirt from cars, which has been employed for some time by the company in excavating a site for a new freight depot. The plow is operated by means of a steel cable attached to an engine. Mr. Root attempted to cross between the engine and cars just as the engine started. The cable was drawn tight and struck Root in the abdomen throwing him several feet. He was carried to his car. He did not lose consciousness, but suffered great pain. The doctors express some doubt of his recovery. Root was but recently appointed assistant general superintendent of the western division of the Northern Pacific with headquarters at Helena, Mont. His wife and family live there. He had only arrived this morning on a tour of inspection.

Board of Trade Meetings.

At the regular meeting of the board of trade held Monday evening a resolution was passed requesting our representative to introduce and pass bills to issue $20,000 bonds for electric lights and to legalize the action of the council in guaranteeing Electric Light Co's bonds. There was some opposition to this resolution but a large majority favored it. The secretary was instructed to communicate with the president of the Water Power Co. to ascertain definitely on what terms power could be secured at the dam; whether his offer to furnish free power to manufacturing enterprises was open yet or not.

A special meeting of the board was held Wednesday night for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed to confer with the city attorney and council in regard to getting the opinion of some prominent twin city attorney on the legality of the action of the council in guaranteeing the Electric Light Co's bonds, the council to pay for the same. The city attorney was present at the meeting and thought the idea a good one, and offered to go to St. Paul and perform the work if the board of trade would guarantee his expenses. The board on motion accepted his proposition. A motion was made and unanimously carried that the new city charter, as amended at the mass meeting last Friday night, be approved by the board.

Revising the Charter.

A mass meeting of our citizens was held at the court house last Friday evening for the purpose of reading and approving the city charter as revised and submitted by the city attorney. The meeting was called to order by the mayor, who stated the object of the meeting, after which Leon E. Lum was elected chairman, and A. J. Halsted, secretary. The proposed charter was then read section by section by the city attorney, and changed and amended whenever a majority present deemed necessary. The reading of the charter and the discussion on amendments occupied over three hours. We have not the space to give a detailed account of all the changes made but will only refer to a few of the more important ones. The new charter as amended at the meeting last Friday changes the date of the city election from March to May, makes the office of the city assessor elective, creates a new ward out of the First and Fourth wards, the new ward comprising all that part of the city south of the N. P. tracks between 6th street and the St. Paul track. It also changes the mode of electing aldermen. Instead of two from each ward as at present, the wards will be entitled to but one alderman each, and four will be elected at large. This will make nine aldermen instead of eight as at present. These are the principal changes in the new charter which is now in the hands of our representative and will probably be adopted week.

Y. W. C. T. U. Entertainment.

The Y. W. C. T. U. will give an entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. building February 22nd, the proceeds to go towards furnishing the Y. M. C. A. rooms. A musical and literary programme will be given, after which refreshments will be served in the following courses: Soup, meats and vegetables, dessert and fruits. Those desiring souvenirs of the occasion can obtain them at the fancy work table for a small sum. Admission 10 cents. Supper 25 cents.

My residence on Bluff avenue will be for sale after the 1st of February, including grounds and stables. This is a very desirable home and will be sold very cheap to the right person. City water in house and yard, with first-class sewerage. For terms, etc., call at my office in Sleeper block.
